Purpose/Objective

This policy will provide guidelines to ensure the following practices are established in Macedon Ranges Shire Council's Early Years Services:

- All adults and children are treated equitably and with respect, regardless of their background, ethnicity, culture, language, beliefs, gender, age, sex or sexual orientation and socioeconomic status, level of ability, additional needs, family structure or lifestyle.
- Promote inclusive practices, affirming, validating, and ensuring the successful participation of all children at Macedon Ranges Shire Council.
- Create a positive mental health and wellbeing environment for children, educators, staff and families.

Values

Macedon Ranges Shire Council is committed to:

- Acknowledging and respecting the rights of all children
- Creating an environment that supports, reflects and promotes equitable and inclusive behaviours and practices
- creating a sense of belonging for all children, families and staff, where diverse identities, backgrounds, experiences, abilities and interests are respected, valued and given opportunities to be expressed and developed.
- Ensuring that programs are reflective of, and responsive to, the values and cultural beliefs of families using the service, and those within the local community and broader society
- Working to ensure children are not discriminated against based on background, ethnicity, culture, language, beliefs, gender, sex or sexual orientation, age, socioeconomic status, health status, level of ability or additional needs, family structure or lifestyle
- Considering the mental health and wellbeing needs of all children, families and staff

Scope

This policy applies to the Approved Provider, Persons with Management or Control, Nominated Supervisor, Persons in day-to-day Charge, staff, students on placement, volunteers, parents/guardians, children and others attending the programs and activities of Macedon Ranges Shire Council.

Background/Reasons for Policy

The National Quality Framework (NQF) recognises all children's capacity and right to succeed regardless of diverse circumstances, cultural background and abilities. Education and care services must hold high expectations for the learning and development of all children, and at the same time recognise that every child follows an individual learning path and will progress in different and equally meaningful ways. Inclusion involves taking into account children's social, cultural and linguistic diversity (including learning styles, abilities, disabilities, gender, family circumstances and geographic location) in curriculum decision-making processes. Early childhood education and care services must implement responsive, equitable, individualised opportunities and additional support whenever barriers are identified.

The NQF is underpinned by a commitment to 'Closing the Gap' and acknowledges Australia is a nation of great diversity, and an ancient land that has been cared for by Indigenous Australians for many thousands of years. Education and care services have a shared responsibility to support children, families, colleagues and the local community to understand, respect and value diversity.

State and Commonwealth laws prohibit discrimination based on personal characteristics, including race, age, gender, religious belief, disability or illness, sex, sexual orientation, and parental status. Federal Sex Discrimination Act and The Equal Opportunity Act 2010.

Under the Child Safe Standards, services are expected to provide environments and activities that encourage all children to participate in and celebrate their identity. The standards are underpinned by three overarching principles, which require services to take into consideration the increased vulnerability of Aboriginal children, children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and children with disabilities.

The Victorian Government requires funded organisations to ensure that their policies and procedures promote equality of opportunity for all children to enable their full participation in kindergarten. A service's philosophy should reflect the values of inclusion and equity which are supported by developing and implementing an inclusion and equity policy. Developing professional knowledge and skills, and using family-centred practice (refer to Definitions) to work in partnership with children, families, communities, and other services and agencies, will assist services to identify, include and support children with additional needs and their families.

Gender Impact Assessment

In accordance with the Gender Equality Act 2020, a Gender Impact Assessment was not required in relation to the subject matter of this report.

Kindergarten Inclusion Support Packages	A package of support for children with a disability and high support needs and/or with complex medical needs.
Mental health	In early childhood this can be understood as a young child's ability to experience, regulate and express emotions; form close and secure interpersonal relationships; and explore the environment and learn – all in the context of family, community and cultural expectations for young children. Infant mental health is synonymous with healthy social and emotional development (from KidsMatter – refer to References).
Out-of-Home Care	Is the term used in Victoria when a child or young person is placed in care away from their parents. It includes placement in kinship care, home-based care such as foster care and residential care. For these children, the State of Victoria is their legal their parent, and with this comes the responsibilities of a parent to care for and protect them, and to ensure that they have access to all the services they need for their immediate and longer-term benefit (Early Childhood Agreement on Out-of-Home Care – refer to References).

Evaluation

In order to assess whether the values and purposes of the policy have been achieved, the Approved Provider will:

- regularly seek feedback from everyone affected by the policy regarding its effectiveness
- monitor the implementation, compliance, complaints and incidents in relation to this policy
- keep the policy up to date with current legislation, research, policy and best practice
- revise the policy and procedures as part of the service's policy review cycle, or as required
- notify all stakeholders including parents/guardians at least 14 days before making any changes to this policy or its procedures unless a lesser period is necessary because of a risk (Regulation 172 (2))
